Telegram dated the 23rd December 1912, from the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department to the Resident in Mysore.

I am desired to report for your information that on the occasion of the State Entry to Delhi as His Excellency and Lady Hardinge were proceeding in procession on an elephant through the Chandni Chowk a bomb was thrown and exploded in the Howdah killing one of the attendants immediately behind their Excellencies and maiming another stop., His Excellency was wounded Her Excellency escaped unhurt stop. His Excellency ordered the procession to proceed but shortly lost consciousness and had to be taken off the elephant and conveyed by motor to Viceregal Lodge by His Excellency's command The Procession reformed and the Durbar ceremony was held according to programme the senoir member of Council Sir Grey Fleetwood Wilson delivering His Excellency's replies to address of the non-official members of Council and the Lieut. Governors of the Punjab stop. Arrest has not been made, the Medical report of His Excellency's Surgeon is as follows begins : A portion of the projectile struck the back of the right shoulder along the inner border of the shoulder blade it passed upwards and came out through the skin along the upper line of the shoulder causing a wound four inches long exposing muscle and bone, there is no injury to the lungs A fragment caused a small wound on the right side of the neck but this is not serious, there are also four small wounds caused by nails on the back of the right hip, all these are slight, there has been moderate loss of blood but the shock has
